“SHINE, JESUS, SHINE!”

We Will Feast in the House of Zion

We will feast in the house of Zion
We will sing with our hearts restored
He has done great things, we will say together
We will feast and weep no more

We will not be burned by the fire
He is the Lord, our God
We are not consumed by the flood
Upheld, protected, gathered up

We will feast in the house of Zion
We will sing with our hearts restored
He has done great things, we will say together
We will feast and weep no more

In the dark of night, before the dawn
My soul, be not afraid
For the promised morning, oh, how long?
Oh, God of Jacob, be my strength

We will feast in the house of Zion
We will sing with our hearts restored

He has done great things, we will say together
We will feast and weep no more

Every vow we've broken and betrayed
You are the Faithful one
And from the garden to the grave
Bind us together, bring shalom

We will feast in the house of Zion
We will sing with our hearts restored
He has done great things, we will say together
We will feast and weep no more

WELCOME/CALL TO WORSHIP Justin Stephens

SCRIPTURE READING...II KINGS 5:1-14 (NRSV) Read by: Justin Stephens

⁵ Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. ² Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. ³ She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." ⁴ So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. ⁵ And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel."

He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. ⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy." ⁷ When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."

⁸ But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. ¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." ¹¹ But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! ¹² Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. ¹³ But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?" ¹⁴ So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

No Longer Slaves

You unravel me
With a melody
You surround me with a song
Of deliverance
From my enemies
'Til all my fears are gone

I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God

From my mother's womb
You have chosen me
Love has called my name
I've been born again

Into Your family
Your blood flows through my veins

I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God

I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God

I am surrounded

By the arms of the Father
I am surrounded
By songs of deliverance
We've been be liberated
From our bondage

We're the sons and the daughters
Let us sing our freedom

You split the sea
So I could walk right through it
My fears are drowned in perfect love

You rescued me
So I could stand and say
I am a child of God

You split the sea
So I could walk right through it
My fears are drowned in perfect love

You rescued me
So I could stand and say
I am a child of God
I am a child of God

I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God

I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God
I'm no longer a slave to fear
I am a child of God

Oh How I Need You

Oh how I need You (repeat)

Lord, I find You in the seeking
Lord, I find You in the doubt
And to know You is to love You
And to know so little else

I need You
Oh, how I need You
Oh, how I need You
Oh, how I need You

Lord, I find You in the seeking
Lord, I find You in the doubt
And to know You is to love You
And to know so little else

I need You
Oh how I need You
Oh how I need You
Oh how I need You

Lord I find You in the morning
Lord I seek You everyday
Let my life be for Your glory
Woven in Your threads of grace

I need You
Oh how I need You
Oh how I need You
Oh how I need You

Light glorious light, I will go where you shine
Break the dawn, crack the skies
Make the way bright before me
In your light, I will find all I need
All I need is You

Light glorious light, I will go where You shine
Break the dawn, crack the skies
Make the way bright before me
In Your light, I will find all I need
All I need is You

Oh how I need You (repeat)

GOSPEL READING...MATTHEW 8:1-4,
MARK 1:40-45, LUKE 5:12-16 Read by: Pr. Tom Grevlos

MESSAGE Pr. Tom Grevlos

When Jesus came down from the mountainside large crowds followed Him.

Jesus was moving in and around the local towns.

There was a man suffering from leprosy all over his body. Those with leprosy had to keep away from everyone, even their family, so as not to pass on this terrible disease to them.

No one wanted to touch a person with leprosy. It was a contagious disease that caused discoloration and lumps on the skin and, in severe cases, disfigurement and deformities.

When this man heard that Jesus was nearby, he made his way to see Him. People with leprosy were meant to shout that they were 'unclean' to warn others to keep away.

The man went up to Jesus and knelt down before Him. Jesus did not move away. He begged Jesus, 'Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.'

Jesus did something no one was expecting Him to do. He reached out and touched the man with leprosy.

'I am willing,' Jesus said. 'Be clean!'

Immediately the leprosy left the man. He was healed.

Jesus told him not to tell anyone what had happened but go and be examined by a Jewish priest. 'Offer the sacrifice Moses' law requires for lepers who are healed,' he said. 'This will prove to everyone that you are well.'

However the report of Jesus' power spread even faster and vast crowds came to hear Him preach and to be healed of their diseases.

So, Jesus often withdrew from the crowds and went into the wilderness to be alone and pray.

COMMUNION INVITATION

As we celebrate this sacrament, all are invited to receive the Risen presence of Jesus.

God is really present—in bread and wine—forgiving sins and promising new life.

Bread/wafer— "The body of Christ given for you";

Wine— "The blood of Christ shed for you."

Dream Again

One stopped on the day she heard him say
"I don't love you anymore"
One stopped on the front porch, 6 years old
Watching dad walk out the door

Open your eyes
Open your eyes
And dream again

One stopped when the doctors said,
"You'll never have a baby of your own"
And one stopped after two attempts at rehab
Couldn't help him get control

Open your eyes
Open your eyes
And dream again
Dream again
Your lungs are still breathing
Your heart is still beating
The end's where the future begins
Just open your eyes
Open your eyes
And dream again

All your would've beens, your could've beens, your should've beens
Just give 'em all to me
Take one last look at who you were
And now let me show you who you still can be

Open your eyes
Just open your eyes
And dream again
Come on and dream again

Your lungs are still breathing
Your heart is still beating
The end's where the future begins
Open your eyes
Just open your eyes
And dream again

I know the plans that I have for you
A hope and a future, a future
I know the plans that I have for you
A hope and a future, a future
I know the plans that I have for you
A hope and a future, a future
Yes I know the plans that I have for you
A hope and a future

Just open your eyes
Open your eyes
And dream again

One starts at the altar where "I'll never love again" becomes "I do"
One starts with a whisper, child, you've always had a Father here with you

And one starts with a baby in the backseat that they thought they'd never be bringing home

And one starts down on bended knee crying, "Jesus, I finally see, I can't beat this on my own"

Open your eyes
Open your eyes
And dream again
